

BQ Business Meeting November 11, 2008

President Wanda Williams opened the meeting. She asked members to keep Jackie Robinson, who fell and broke her fibula, in our thoughts and prayers. She also informed members that Cindy Long was going through cancer treatments and that it would be a lovely way to send our thoughts to her with a 6-½ inch angel block using pink.

Wanda ask that members read and review the copies of the proposed bylaws and note any questions to be answered at the December business meeting before voting to accept them.

Julia regaled us with the “viewing” joke and gave her Treasurer’s report.

Wanda informed members that they could give checks for the Christmas luncheon to Julia Larsen after the meeting. The cost of the luncheon is $10.00 for members and $15.00 for guests. The guild is picking up the additional $5.00 for each member. At least 40 must sign up in order to have the luncheon.

Cleo Lawrence read the proposed slate of officers for 2009:

President-Wanda Williams
V.P.—Anne Pendred
Treasurer—Julia Larsen
Secretary—Nina Clark
Programs—Joyce DeLucia
Membership—Linda Swanson

Cleo called for nominations from the floor and there were none. A show of hands voted in the slate. Congratulations and a thank you to the nominating committee.

Anne Pendred won this month’s 50/50 drawing.

Liz Scott won the “Stardust” fat quarters.

Bert Murray won the special drawing.

Sixteen of our members participated in Show and Tell. They showed a variety of projects and it is great to see all the talent!!!

Respectfully submitted,
Karen Harding
