

Fat Quarter List for 2024

Theme: Butterflies

There are 20,000 species of butterflies in the world! They are important pollinators!

For ANY color listed you can use solid, prints, tone on tone, plaids, etc...

January: Zebra Swallowtail: Blacks and Whites of all kinds

Native to eastern US and Southeastern Canada; State butterfly of Tennessee

February: Gulf Fritillary: Oranges of all kinds

Native to extreme southern portions of the US, Mexico and Central America

March: Great Purple Emperor: Purples of all kinds

Native to Japan, Korea and China; appears in the UK as well; extremely elusive

April: Little Yellow (Little Sulpher) Butterfly: Yellows of all kinds

Found from Costa Rica up through southern US;

May: Emerald Swallowtail: Greens of all kinds

Native to Asia, but kept in butterfly houses around the world; changes color dependent on the angle of the light; said to bring love and abundance

June: Speckled Wood Butterfly: Browns of all kinds

Native to Eurasia, North Africa and Europe; has cream colored eyespots on wings

July: Giant Blue Morpho: – Blues of all kinds

Has a wingspan of 5 to 8 inches; native to South America.

August: The Pink Rose: Pinks of all kinds

Native to the Phillipines; pink butterflies signify kindness and compassion

September: White butterflies: Whites of all kinds

In US known as Cabbage White, in Europe as Little White- very common

October: Gray Hairstreak: Grays of all kinds

Lives in tropical forests to mountains, to meadows, cities and farmland; they have orange spots on the hind edge of their wings

November: Red Lacewing: Reds of all kinds

Native to Indian Subcontinent, Philippines and Southeast Asia; lifespan is 7-10 days

December: Madagascar Sunset Moth: Multi-colors of all kinds

Only found in Madagascar and is day-flying; all moths are butterflies!

